

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION.

FOR STATE TREASURER: DANIEL O. BARR, of Allegheny County.

MEMPHIS in again scourged with yellow fever. Last year the first case occurred on the 11th of August, but this year it commenced on the 10th of July, or more than a month earlier, and since then there has been a daily increase in the number of cases.

THE Republican State Convention met at Harrisburg last Wednesday and went through the form of unanimously nominating M. S. Quay's candidate, Samuel Butler, of Chester county, for State Treasurer. The machine worked admirably, without a single break or stir.

GRANT'S third term advocates have just been reinforced from a quarter that cannot fail to inspire them with renewed vigor and hope of ultimate success. The Duke of Argyll, Scotland, who is the father of the Marquis of Lorne, and now Viceroy of Canada, was in New York last week on his return to Scotland on a visit to his son.

THE Johnstown Tribune in copying the announcement by the Harrisburg Telegraph that John A. Lemon was not to be a candidate for the nomination of State Treasurer at the Republican State convention, on Wednesday last expressed its belief that "the Lemon does not desire to contest in convention with men like Messrs. Hart and Butler."

THE maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially the right of each State to order and control its own territory, and to regulate its own commerce, is essential to that balance of power on which the perfection and permanency of our national institutions fundamentally depend, and we denounce the lawless invasion by armed forces of the soil of any State or Territory, and we protest against any attempt on the part of Congress to exercise the powers of the States.

THE Rev. Mr. Ross, of East Williams, has accepted the nomination to approach the communion table in his church on the ground that at Masonic funerals the name of Christ is not used in the service. The Rev. A. N. Aloit has stepped down and out of the Presbyterian ministry at the suggestion of the Wooster, O., Presbytery because he preached the postscript to the resurrection of Christ died for all and not for the elect only.

THE Rev. Mr. Ross, of East Williams, has accepted the nomination to approach the communion table in his church on the ground that at Masonic funerals the name of Christ is not used in the service. The Rev. A. N. Aloit has stepped down and out of the Presbyterian ministry at the suggestion of the Wooster, O., Presbytery because he preached the postscript to the resurrection of Christ died for all and not for the elect only.

THE Rev. Mr. Ross, of East Williams, has accepted the nomination to approach the communion table in his church on the ground that at Masonic funerals the name of Christ is not used in the service. The Rev. A. N. Aloit has stepped down and out of the Presbyterian ministry at the suggestion of the Wooster, O., Presbytery because he preached the postscript to the resurrection of Christ died for all and not for the elect only.

THE Rev. Mr. Ross, of East Williams, has accepted the nomination to approach the communion table in his church on the ground that at Masonic funerals the name of Christ is not used in the service. The Rev. A. N. Aloit has stepped down and out of the Presbyterian ministry at the suggestion of the Wooster, O., Presbytery because he preached the postscript to the resurrection of Christ died for all and not for the elect only.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The annual convention of the Democratic party of this State was held at Harrisburg on Wednesday last week, and notwithstanding the extreme heat of the weather there was a large attendance.

The annual convention of the Democratic party of this State was held at Harrisburg on Wednesday last week, and notwithstanding the extreme heat of the weather there was a large attendance. Most of the delegates in the proceedings of said body. The convention was called to order by Chairman Spear, who read over the list of delegates.

The annual convention of the Democratic party of this State was held at Harrisburg on Wednesday last week, and notwithstanding the extreme heat of the weather there was a large attendance. Most of the delegates in the proceedings of said body. The convention was called to order by Chairman Spear, who read over the list of delegates.

The annual convention of the Democratic party of this State was held at Harrisburg on Wednesday last week, and notwithstanding the extreme heat of the weather there was a large attendance. Most of the delegates in the proceedings of said body. The convention was called to order by Chairman Spear, who read over the list of delegates.

The annual convention of the Democratic party of this State was held at Harrisburg on Wednesday last week, and notwithstanding the extreme heat of the weather there was a large attendance. Most of the delegates in the proceedings of said body. The convention was called to order by Chairman Spear, who read over the list of delegates.

The annual convention of the Democratic party of this State was held at Harrisburg on Wednesday last week, and notwithstanding the extreme heat of the weather there was a large attendance. Most of the delegates in the proceedings of said body. The convention was called to order by Chairman Spear, who read over the list of delegates.

The annual convention of the Democratic party of this State was held at Harrisburg on Wednesday last week, and notwithstanding the extreme heat of the weather there was a large attendance. Most of the delegates in the proceedings of said body. The convention was called to order by Chairman Spear, who read over the list of delegates.

The annual convention of the Democratic party of this State was held at Harrisburg on Wednesday last week, and notwithstanding the extreme heat of the weather there was a large attendance. Most of the delegates in the proceedings of said body. The convention was called to order by Chairman Spear, who read over the list of delegates.

The annual convention of the Democratic party of this State was held at Harrisburg on Wednesday last week, and notwithstanding the extreme heat of the weather there was a large attendance. Most of the delegates in the proceedings of said body. The convention was called to order by Chairman Spear, who read over the list of delegates.

NEWS AND OTHER NOTINGS.

Flood, the California millionaire, is to have a stable built at Menlo Park at a cost of $50,000. John R. Watson, Jr., died in Newark, R. I., on Friday, of lockjaw, caused by a nail piercing his foot.

A mammoth boy lives in Redwood Valley, Mendocino county, Cal. He is 14 years of age and weighs 207 pounds. John Fitzsimmons, eight years old, was drowned Saturday afternoon while bathing in the Allegheny river at Pittsburgh.

Eight persons were drowned by the capsizing of a pleasure yacht at Point aux Trembles, near Quebec, on Friday evening. The Illinois Lutherans, in Synod assembled, have instructed their ministers not to administer baptism by immersion to any person.

A young woman in London for Prince Napoleon, a dove hovered above the incense and alighted on a gilded eagle above the altar. A nine-year old boy named "Snow" Clark was accidentally drowned in French creek, near Franklin, Venango county, on Friday.

Louis Scogodi, Paul Bischoffski, and the Rev. Mr. Watson, on Monday, by the swamping of their boat. A West Bradford, Chester county, family possesses a blind dog, a deaf cat, a dumb pig, a dumb cow, a dumb horse, a dumb sheep, and a dumb calf.

An unknown man and boy, while walking on the New York and New England railroad bridge, at South Boston, on Friday, were struck by a train and killed. The camp meeting is growing in favor. Almost all denominations now recognize and use it. The Methodists have held a year of not less than 150 camp meetings.

The postmaster at Loganport, Ind., has been arranged by the Presbyterian church to hold a school for the deaf and dumb in the postoffice on an hour every Sunday morning. An enthusiastic temperance woman at Fort Collins, Colorado, has given a public subscription for a school for the deaf and dumb in the postoffice on an hour every Sunday morning.

A negro named Marcellus Floyd, who attempted to outrage a white girl, was arrested by the police and taken from jail by an armed mob and hanged to a tree on the road side. The house of a farmer named Julius Jackson was burned from the ground by a lightning bolt, and two of his children perished. Mr. Jackson was also probably fatally burned.

A negro at Dallas, Texas, believing that he had been poisoned by his wife and children, but an irreligious physician interferred and saved their lives. Mr. Oliver has been given the title of Marquis by Pope Leo XIII. Mr. Oliver has been noted for his liberality and liberality to the Holy See, and was created a Count by Pius IX. The bill conferring the title of Marquis declares that "in the name of Mr. Oliver's family, descending to the eldest son."

NEWS AND OTHER NOTINGS.

It is reported that Carl Miller and Patrick Martin, of Boston, and Samuel Lovell, a visitor to Boston from the West, took a sailboat at Cape Cod last Wednesday noon for a sail down the harbor, and have not been heard from since. It is believed that they were lost in the gale.

The arrears of pensions law is a godsend to widow Maria Lewis, of Phoenix, New York. All her five sons joined the Union army and all were killed, leaving her to be supported by charity. She has now secured back pensions due her for the years of her husband's absence and is also guaranteed an annuity of $90.

At Elkland, Pa., Friday afternoon, four boys, about thirteen years old, filled a piece of tubing, a foot and a half in length, with gunpowder and their lights. The explosion which followed, put out the eyes, tore away one cheek and part of the jaw of Frank Whitaker, son of the mail agent at Elkland, and he died at nine o'clock the same night. Miss Bowden did not deem it prudent to reject William Slater's offer of marriage on the spot, because they were riding on a lonely road near Omaha, and he said that he would accompany her to the city, and as soon as they reached the city she called out for help, and a man took her away from her impetuous lover. The bullet going through her body, but not making a mortal wound.

The Johnstown Democrat of Wednesday says, "The delegates to the Democratic State Convention have been furnished free passes, an order having been published by the Pennsylvania Railroad a few days before that convention met announcing that passes would be issued to the delegates to the convention. The delegates, however, that are attending the Republican State Convention to-day have been furnished passes, and had the right to bill anything, to do with this matter?"

The Catholics far outnumber any other denomination in Kansas. Catholic colonization does it. In that State the Catholics have 18,883 members; Congregationalists, 15,000 members; Episcopalians, 12,000 members; and other denominations, 10,000 members. There are 1,469 members of the Catholic Church in Kansas. There are 1,469 members of the Catholic Church in Kansas. There are 1,469 members of the Catholic Church in Kansas.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

NEWS AND OTHER NOTINGS.

At Elkland, Pa., Friday afternoon, four boys, about thirteen years old, filled a piece of tubing, a foot and a half in length, with gunpowder and their lights. The explosion which followed, put out the eyes, tore away one cheek and part of the jaw of Frank Whitaker, son of the mail agent at Elkland, and he died at nine o'clock the same night. Miss Bowden did not deem it prudent to reject William Slater's offer of marriage on the spot, because they were riding on a lonely road near Omaha, and he said that he would accompany her to the city, and as soon as they reached the city she called out for help, and a man took her away from her impetuous lover. The bullet going through her body, but not making a mortal wound.

The Johnstown Democrat of Wednesday says, "The delegates to the Democratic State Convention have been furnished free passes, an order having been published by the Pennsylvania Railroad a few days before that convention met announcing that passes would be issued to the delegates to the convention. The delegates, however, that are attending the Republican State Convention to-day have been furnished passes, and had the right to bill anything, to do with this matter?"

The Catholics far outnumber any other denomination in Kansas. Catholic colonization does it. In that State the Catholics have 18,883 members; Congregationalists, 15,000 members; Episcopalians, 12,000 members; and other denominations, 10,000 members. There are 1,469 members of the Catholic Church in Kansas. There are 1,469 members of the Catholic Church in Kansas. There are 1,469 members of the Catholic Church in Kansas.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

NEWS AND OTHER NOTINGS.

At Elkland, Pa., Friday afternoon, four boys, about thirteen years old, filled a piece of tubing, a foot and a half in length, with gunpowder and their lights. The explosion which followed, put out the eyes, tore away one cheek and part of the jaw of Frank Whitaker, son of the mail agent at Elkland, and he died at nine o'clock the same night. Miss Bowden did not deem it prudent to reject William Slater's offer of marriage on the spot, because they were riding on a lonely road near Omaha, and he said that he would accompany her to the city, and as soon as they reached the city she called out for help, and a man took her away from her impetuous lover. The bullet going through her body, but not making a mortal wound.

The Johnstown Democrat of Wednesday says, "The delegates to the Democratic State Convention have been furnished free passes, an order having been published by the Pennsylvania Railroad a few days before that convention met announcing that passes would be issued to the delegates to the convention. The delegates, however, that are attending the Republican State Convention to-day have been furnished passes, and had the right to bill anything, to do with this matter?"

The Catholics far outnumber any other denomination in Kansas. Catholic colonization does it. In that State the Catholics have 18,883 members; Congregationalists, 15,000 members; Episcopalians, 12,000 members; and other denominations, 10,000 members. There are 1,469 members of the Catholic Church in Kansas. There are 1,469 members of the Catholic Church in Kansas. There are 1,469 members of the Catholic Church in Kansas.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

James Wilson, with his wife and child, the latter a year old, reside at Weymouth, a short distance below Camden, N. J. When the Wilsons returned on Saturday evening their child became restless. The mother suddenly cried out, "The child is dead!" and she fell on the bed as though in agony and when exhausted lay with her head down upon its right shoulder. The parents gave their child medicine, which brought no relief. The child was removed from the house and a doctor called. A horrible sight met the gaze of all present. On the right breast of the child was a large green worm, which had gnawed its way through the skin for a space of over two square inches. The worm was removed and immediately after the child found relief.

Important Announcement

JOHN WANAMAKER, GRAND DEPOT, Thirteenth Street, - Philadelphia.

THE large increase of our business thus far this year makes it necessary to ENLARGE OUR PREMISES.

We have been cramped and crowded all the season in some of our Departments, and it is necessary to make some important alterations and additions to give us the needed space. The only time to do this is during August and September, our dull periods of the year. To allow the buyers to get rapidly with the work, some of our goods must be removed. To save expense, we have decided to sell our goods at a very low price for a short time. The whole of our stock will be found to be marked very low.

THE GREAT ALTERATION SALE COMMENCES IMMEDIATELY.

Our prices are always at the very lowest point, and at this time, when goods are selling in prices, we should not press our stock to sale but to get the goods out of the way of the season.

EXTENSIVE ALTERATIONS

And Improvements to be made to the Grand Depot. It is unnecessary to say that the quality of our goods are the best. We do not mean to lose reputation by selling poor quality goods. The well-known rules of Exchange and Return Money observed by the Grand Depot fully protect our customers, and, besides, in carrying out this great business, we are very careful to keep good faith with our patrons who depend upon us.

GREAT ALTERATION SALE.

Silk, Dress Goods, Trimmings, and everything in Ladies' and Gentlemen's Wear, whether in large or small quantities, promptly forwarded by mail or express, and exactly as ordered. We do not mean to lose reputation by selling poor quality goods. The well-known rules of Exchange and Return Money observed by the Grand Depot fully protect our customers, and, besides, in carrying out this great business, we are very careful to keep good faith with our patrons who depend upon us.

John Wanamaker, GRAND DEPOT, Thirteenth Street, Market and Chestnut, PHILADELPHIA.

Wanamaker & Brown

The thoughtful and discriminating portion of the public who purchase

READY-MADE CLOTHING

Will see with even but little consideration that the old house of Wanamaker & Brown is in a position to give superior advantages to its patrons. These advantages consist in supplying goods that are

First- Properly Made Up. Second- Materials Strunk. Third- Excellent in Fit.

The cut and finish of our Men's and Boys' Clothing is of a character to outrank the ordinary custom work.

ORDINARY CUSTOM WORK.

We found out long ago by actual experience that garments bought up from the Wholesale Store are no means so reliable as those made up under our own personal supervision. Neither will the cut and general style of our goods compare with those made up to our own careful make. By making our own goods the

PRODUCER AND CONSUMER

Are brought in direct contact, and as a consequence the latter reap no small advantage.

BOYS' AND YOUTHS' CLOTHING

This form a very considerable portion of our business, and we are satisfied that we can supply our patrons with goods of the highest quality and at the lowest prices.

LOW PRICES

Do not always mean good value. On this head we shall only say that when style and quality are taken into account, we are not, under any circumstances, ever underpaid, and within the price to which we sell our goods, we are sure to give you the best value for your money.

OUR STOCK IS ENORMOUS.

Especially in this goods, suited to the present weather. Inviting a visit and recommendation from our friends.

We Remain Very Respectfully,

WANAMAKER & BROWN,

The Largest Clothing House in America, OAK HALL, - Sixth and Market, PHILADELPHIA.

ATTENTION EVERYBODY!

We desire to inform the public general that we have

Established a Big Store

AT TUNNEL HILL

And respectfully invite attention to the fact that we have

Much More in Quantity and Variety

than is usually kept in stores of this kind.

It is everywhere conceded by those who have given us a call that by any other store in the neighborhood. We are prepared to meet the requirements of all our patrons, and we are sure to give you the best value for your money.

Our Stock

IS NOT EQUALLED FOR QUALITY, VARIETY and EXTENSIVENESS.

HEADQUARTERS FOR ALL KIND OF GOODS

More than that, we shall endeavor to give you the best value for your money.

DEAL WITH US PERMANENTLY

by carefully entering to their warrants and orders, and we are sure to give you the best value for your money.

TO FARMER

We would say, we have an extensive stock of goods, and we are sure to give you the best value for your money.

CASH PAID FOR GRAIN WHEN SO BARREN

We are sure to give you the best value for your money.

STORES

at Tunnel Hill, Pa.

NOTICE

The Partnership Association of the State of Pennsylvania, has been dissolved.

Advertisement

of 4 lines inserted 1 week, to $50 per 100 paper pamphlet, G. V. BOWLETT CO., N. Y.